

ONEOK PARTNERS, L.P.

PROCESS FOR COMMUNICATING WITH DIRECTORS OF ONEOK PARTNERS GP, L.L.C.

Applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange provide for disclosure by companies of the process for interested parties, including shareholders, to communicate directly with the board of directors, including non-management directors and non-management directors as a group.

The Board of Directors of ONEOK Partners GP, L.L.C. (the “Company”), the sole general partner of ONEOK Partners, L.P. (the “Partnership”), believes that it is management’s role to speak for the Partnership. The Board also believes that any communications between members of the Board and interested parties, including unitholders, should be conducted with the knowledge of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer.

Accordingly, the Company’s Audit Committee has established the following process for communications between interested parties, Partnership unitholders, and members of the Company’s Board of Directors, including non-management directors and non-management directors as a group.

1. Interested parties, including unitholders, may contact one or more members of the Company’s Board of Directors, including non-management directors and non-management directors as a group, by writing to the director or directors in care of the Corporate Secretary at the office of the Company’s corporate headquarters.
2. A communication received from an interested party or unitholder will be promptly forwarded to the director or directors to whom the communication is addressed. A copy of the communication will be provided to the Company’s Chief Executive Officer. Sales or marketing materials or correspondence not clearly identified as interested party or unitholder correspondence will not be forwarded.
3. The status of all communications addressed to non-management directors will be reported to the Chair of the Audit Committee on a periodic basis.
